1st Sunday of Lent Stewardship Reflection

The word “detachment” sums up the Season of Lent. It's not that every Christian must live like a monk and have no possessions. But we are not to be attached to them. We should be able to let them go if they are taken from us. Because in the end, whether through disaster or death, everything will be taken from us except for our soul. Everything that's not important will remain here on earth. Everything that is important, if it's rooted in God, will be part of our life with God and the communion of His saints forever. Focusing on Jesus during Lent will help us to see the difference.

The Rice Bowl - Lenten Alms Change Lives

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CR5 Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

What does Lent Do for Me?

"Lent invites us to conversion, to a change in mindset, so that life's truth and beauty may be found not so much in possessing as in giving, not so much in accumulating as in sowing and sharing goodness."
---Pope Francis
